GOVERNOR COSTA'S MESSAGE.

The Governor of the Province of Buenos Ayres issued yesterday an important message to the Legislature of the Province, on the subject of reviving the Provincial Bank, which we give in another column. Its great length may deter many people from reading it, although we recommend everyone to do so, as the matter is one of the highest importance.

His Excellency begins by saying that in May 1890 the position of the bank was admirable: in fact it was the strongest bank in South America. We are inclined to think that this view is erroneous, and that the total capital, say £7,000,000 sterling (as shewn in 1888) had disappeared before January 1890. An examination of the bills in portfolio at that date would shew how many of them were good, how many worthless.

Among the causes of the Bank's insolvency he gives prominence to the fact that it was compelled to pay up £450,000 due to Baring Brothers, but this sum is insignificant in a bank with a capital of £7,000,000 sterling, and whose deposits then reached 130 millions currency.

We next come to a matter of more weight, namely, the advances to the Mortgage Bank, amounting to 18½ millions currency, which at a medium rate for the various dates of such advances would represent about £1,800,000 sterling or one-fourth of the capital of the Provincial Bank. His Excellency also shows that the Bank lost 9 millions currency (probably about £900,000 sterling) in unfortunate exchange operations and that advances to Government (since 1865) amounted to 29 million hard dollars, or nominaliy £5,800,000 sterling. These confessions fully confirm our view that in May 1890 the capital of the bank was all gone, partly through advances to the Mortgage Bank, partly by tremendous losses in exchange, partly by loans to Government, and finally by lending money to people of doubtful security.

His Excellency points with emphasis to the fact that in January 1891 the total deposits, mostly belonging to the working-classes, reached 130 million dollars. This would be nominally 26 millions sterling, truly an enormous figure, but he forgets to notice that the shin-plastering of the Republic had reduced these savings of the working-classes to an effective value of 43 million gold dollars, or £8,600,000 sterling. Thus the working-classes lost 17 millions sterling, and the accumulated wealth of the people had been diverted into other channels.

He proceeds to inform us that in 11 months the public withdrew 31 millions of their deposits, which by no means surprises us, In fact we rather wonder they did not take out double that amount. His Excellency, in view of the run on the Bank, applied to the National Government, apparently with the hope of a new issue of shin-plasters, and hence the project of Pres. Pellegrini to issue 100 millions of "metallic notes," which would have enabled the Provincial Bank to continue its career and pay its way. Public feeling, however, ran counter to this, and the Patriotic loan was raised, to save the Bank.

Governor Costa declares that the Patriotic Loan was a melancholy failure: the amount subscribed was only 43 millions, issued at 75 and yielding net 32 millions. So far the Provincial Bank has only received 14 millions, while the depositors drew out 16 millions, leaving the bank worse off than before.

His Excellency would have us understand that the necessity for another issue of shinplasters was not merely his own belief, but also that of President Pellegrini, for he says that Dr. Plaza's compact was not signed in London until the clause against further issues of paper money was expunged. The Argentine Government may print millions of shinplasters weekly, provided always that they religiously carry out the clause which compels them to burn 15 millions per annum. It would difficult to imagine anything more ridiculous, and yet we regret to say that Governor Costa's statement on this point is literally correct.

He shews that the assets of the bank at present comprise (besides some public buildings) the following bills in portfolio:—

At La Plata	57,000,000
" Buenos Ayres..	54,000,000
" Branches	41,000,000
Total	152,000,000

This manifestly includes bad debts, or "morose debtors," the amount of which may be 50 per cent or less. Before any serious attempt can be made to reconstitute the bank it would be advisable to publish a statement under four heads, viz—

1.—How much of the assets are locked up in advances to Governments and public institutions.

2.—How many persons owe the Bank from $200,000 upwards, and what is the aggregate sum.

3.—How many persons owe interest over 6 months, and how many have paid nothing by way of amortization since September 30th 1890.

4.—What is the amount due by persons already made bankrupt, or notoriously insolvent.

As soon as the necessary light be thrown on the books of the Bank we shall be in a position to suggest the best means for re-constructing it as a joint-stock concern, without right of issue.

Governor Costa promises to name a special committee to consult as to the re-opening of the bank, but declares his unwillingness to offer any programme of his own. He appears to hint that a fresh issue of shinplasters is the only possible method, as he anticipates a run on the Bank on June 1st., and asks what is to be done?

We answer, and the public answers, that His Excellency may take whatever steps he deems expedient, provided there be no fresh issue of shinplasters.

THE NAPOSTA SUFFERERS.

It is much to be regretted that the Irish estancieros have made no move in the direction of helping our poor countrymen. We earnestly beg the Irish chaplains in the various districts to second the efforts of the people in town who are laboring so indefatigably in this cause.

We understand that the Irish ladies who have taken such an interest in the matter are now in treaty for the establishment of a refuge for the boys at Mercedes, the Government contributing a sum of $4,000. The Irish Convent has already agreed to take 10 girls free of charge.

As regards the adults, some have been sent to Mercedes, and it is proposed to send others to Rosario and Concordia. There are, meantime, some families wholly unable to earn a livelihood, and it is incumbent on the Hon. F. Pakenham, as H.M. Plenipotentiary, to impress upon the Minister of Foreign Affairs the necessity of providing them with a passage home.

Before sending any of the families who are able to work up to the Interior there should be a clear understanding as to the work and wages offered. It would be nothing short of cruelty to send them off a thousand miles on the mere chance of getting work. The more so as a large number of Dutch colonists in the same position as the Naposta people arrived yesterday from the Interior.

THE PROVINCIAL BANK.

GOVERNOR COSTAS MESSAGE.

La Plata, April 14th, 1891.

To the Honourable Legislators,

In a moment of severe trial to my government it has become my duty to call your attention to a public fact that not only injures our collective interests and hurts our general sympathies, but also wounds to the quick our personal feelings, to such a degree that we may well exclaim, "Is it the departure of an institution or of some dear relative that leaves such a void and projects such a shadow over the minds of all?" Such is the virtue of tradition in a people that a breach can only be effected at the expense of terrible sufferings, like an old tree that for generations has thrown its shade across a threshold and that nobody dares to touch. Whilst recognizing in others the same frankness and honesty of purpose that animate me, I cannot doubt the sincerity of the President of the Republic, and I feel sure that, like every son of Buenos Ayres, his heart must have beat faster as he found that he could not save the credit and interests of the Bank of the Province of Buenos Ayres. Such is the gravity of the situation that I feel bound, in these exceptional moments, to explain the facts to you, that you may know the feelings of my Government and judge the consequences involved in the present emergency. Let me tell you that what has befallen the Provincial Bank might have happened to the most vigorous institution in the world; no human foresight could forestall the inevitable and the inexplicable.

On the 1st of May, 1890, when I assumed the Government, the Bank of the Province of Buenos Ayres might be considered the strongest banking institution in the Republic—perhaps in South America. By means of the sale of the provincial railways, my Government handed to the Bank thirteen million gold dollars; this sufficed to pay the 27 million paper dollars that the Government owed the Bank; furthermore, that amount left a surplus to pay for some time the service on the debt. The deposits in the Ba k increased daily, and, in spite of the financial and political crisis that afflicted the country, the prospects of production were excellent, the working of the 40 branches of the Bank was perfect, whilst the working in La Plata and the capital was more or less satisfactory. The Bank's credit abroad was flourishing, and all its elements were sound.

The clouds of the political situation, the proposal to issue one hundred million mortgage notes, and the depreciation of the currency, however, began to affect the Bank. Then came the revolution and the issue of 60 millions more currency, with collateral depreciation of the currency and increased distrust, enhanced by rumors of tottering firms in the London market. The private banks that resisted the 2 % tax of the Minister withdrew their deposits at sight in the Bank to the amount of six millions: in the midst of the general distrust capitalists also began to withdraw deposits. The tottering state of the house of Barings necessitated the immediate payment of £450,000 to that firm, say the amount of the open credit enjoyed by the Bank: this remittance cost the Bank over seven million paper dollars: then all foreign credits of the Bank were closed, and in consequence six millions more paper had to be spent in remittances: what rendered the situation still more critical was the fact that the National Government at the same time had to enter the market to take exchange. Meanwhile, the Mortgage Bank was in a dilemma; every three months it was a question of suspending the service on the Cedulas or weakening the position of the Provincial Bank; yet the Bank handed to the Mortgage Bank eighteen million and a half dollars. All these facts alarmed depositors. Whilst meeting in this fashion the run on its deposits, helping at times the National Bank, enabling the Mortgage Bank to pay its way up to April 1st, paying the service on the internal and foreign debt, the Bank refrained from exerting any pressure on its debtors and gave whatever elements it had to help farmers in the province. The disbursements of the Bank from 1st May 1890 to 1st April 1891 were as follows:—

Private banks' deposits	6,000,000
Closing of foreign credits ..	13,000,000
Service of debt	10,000,000
Return of clandestine issue..	870,000
Sent to the Mortgage Bank..	15,000,000
Paid out deposits	26,500,000

This makes an enormous total of 71,370,000 $ paid out with the proceeds arising from a shrinkage of discounts, the sale of the railways, the extraordinary resources accorded by the Caja de Conversion in April 1890, and March and April 1891, and from its immense credit, proved by the 130 millions it held in deposit on 1st January 1891, an amount unequalled in South America and seldom recorded in any part of the world.

The Bank, no doubt, might have continued working if it had exerted sufficient pressure on its debtors till they were ruined, yet it preferred to follow the example of great institutions, and my Government informed the National Government of the state of the Bank's affairs, receiving for answer that the whole power of the Nation would support the Bank in its emergency. As the difficulties of the situation increased, the Chairman of the Bank made another appeal to the National Minister of Finance. It then happened that the National Bank was in the same predicament. Both the President of the Republic and his Minister of Finance thought the situation so serious that they telegraphed to Dr. Victorino de la Plaza to suspend the loan negotiation for 75 millions, explaining that a run on the Provincial Bank was taking place, that it might be necesaary to make a fresh emission, and that the National Government could not break any clauses of the loan contract. The very foreign creditors of the country saw the gravity of the situation and informed Dr. Plaza that the loan contract did not specify any prohibition as to the issue of paper money, but stipulated a yearly withdrawal of currency to the amount of 15 millions. After such assurances the President ordered the negotiation to be signed, decreed several feast-days, and convoked leading men in politics and commerce to listen to their advice and their remedies for the situation. After mature deliberation in Cabinet Councils, after listening to the managers of the private banks, it was resolved to avert the catastrophe, term applied to qualify the suspension of the National and Provincial Banks, by means of a fresh issue of paper money, and this proposal was made public by the very President of the Republic. This proposal was to withdraw the present currency from circulation and replace it by a new National currency which would be received as gold value in all the public offices of the nation and provinces. In all probability that issue would not have much increased the nominal value of the actual currency, as the mere fact that the nation was determined to support the State banks would have put an end to the run on the banks and removed the great difficulties of the hour.

The President in his speech before the Assembly of Notables showed that the market had to choose between two evils, the lesser one—a fresh issue of paper; or, the greater one—the liquidation of the two State banks. The President then referred to the other proposal, the internal loan, and opined it was expedient if the loan were large enough to save the banks. As the Bolsa committee gave assurances as to the possibility of the loan, the President of the Republic accepted the idea. The banks, meantime, remained closed, and the subscription to the internal loan was carried out with the greatest zeal on the part of the promoters and of the market during the feast days.

A nominal value of 43 millions was subscribed, say in money 32 millions, to meet the requirements of the National Bank, of the National Mortgage Bank, which held its deposits in the National Bank, and of the Provincial Bank, which also held in deposit the service collected by the Mortgage Bank of the Province. It was quite plain that the 32 millions of the loan were not sufficient, but the President of the Republic, with his usual tact and generosity, rather than resort to fresh paper issues, accepted the 43 millions of the loan in lieu of the 100 millions originally stipulated; and in signifying this acceptance he promised that in case of an issue of currency all disbursements an account of the loan would be returned to the subscribers; this promise was a solemn pledge to the State Banks that they should be saved if the loan were not adequate for all requirements.

With such antecedents to guide me, with full confidence in the assistance of the funds of the Internal Loan, and, in case these should fail, of the promised issue of paper money, I resolved to re-open the doors of the Provincial Bank. As I anticipated, fresh complications set in: the loan has not only been insufficient, but it has actually increased the difficulties of the Bank and extended a privilege to certain operations at the expense of others. Thus, whilst the Bank received on account of the loan 14 millions, it paid out deposits to the amount of 16 millions, nearly all to pay for subscriptions to that loan: thus the loan has actually injured the Bank instead of conferring any benefit on the establishment. Further withdrawals of deposits rendered the situation more complicated; these withdrawals are explained by the departure of working people from these shores; these men are nearly all depositors and 25,000 have left since the beginning of the year. Thus the emergency of the previous month was again at hand.

Trusting to the good faith of the President of the Republic and placing implicit confidence in the assurance that the Bank could be saved by a fresh issue of paper money in case the proceeds of the internal loan proved insufficient, I appealed to him, explained the situation of the Bank, and begged his assistance. The answer I received was the decree you all know, in which the President proposes to start a new banking system, and the suppression of the Provincial and National Banks, to form one great bank. Had I forseen this, let me assure you, I should not have allowed the reopening of the bank, if but for the sake of preventing the withdrawal of the 18 millions which constitutes a kind of privilege over the other depositors in the Bank.

No doubt, the Banking Law of the country needs reform: it needs the practical improvements in the American and Brazilian Banking Laws. I am not partial to any connection of the State with the banks; a hint might have sufficed to induce me to present to you a bill abolishing all State connection, and I trust that the Congress of the nation, whilst saving the Provincial Bank, will pass a law that shall emancipate all the banks from the State.

The system of deposits and discounts may be modified by custom or by law; but this does not belong to our banking system, and the best reforms we might expect from our own experience.

I make these observations as I do not believe that it is expedient to liquidate the Provincial Bank: its present condition is accidental and it represents provincial interests which are permanent. The Bank has paid all its foreign obligations: it owes deposits to the amount of 100 millions: it holds bills in portfolio to the amount of 152 millions, distributed as follows:—

54,000,000 in capital of Republic.
57,000,000 in La Plata.
41,000,000 in the province.

The issue of the Bank is guaranteed by National gold bonds bearing 4½ % interest, which are certainly more valuable than the paper issue of the Bank. The properties owned by the Bank are numerous: its deposits are not only guaranteed by the province, but by the nation as promised in the recent decree: this ought to restore confidence and convince depositors that the present critical situation of the Bank is an accident that wise laws of Congress will avert in the future. To judge of the importance of the operations of the Bank and of the confidence it enjoys, let me tell you that since the financial holidays the deposits in the branches of the bank have increased 3½ millions, whilst those in La Plata and the Capital of the Republic have been at the rate of $600,000 daily.

Nothing, therefore, can shake the credit of the Bank, if, as I expect, Congress enables it to emerge from the present situation; and I may state with pride that the Bank has lent the nation and the province invaluable services; its loans to the nation since 1865 amount to 29 million dollars and 21 millions "moneda corriente;" in helping national finances it has sacrificed 9 million dollars.

I must call your attention to two grave facts. The national decree stipulates nothing, it merely puts off the reckoning. What will be the proportions of that reckoning on the 1st June? The situation then will be quite as dangerous as the day the decree was issued. How are the depositors to be paid? I cannot accept the responsibility accruing from measures beyond the will or jurisdiction of provincial authorities.

Another grave consideration is the paralyzation of capital and credit in the province at a moment when the farmer has to sow his seed to reap the harvest that may save the country from the present precarious situation. I beg also to decline all responsibility in this respect.

In view of the exceptional industrial conditions of the province, where the natural productive evolution takes place not under eighteen months, it is idle to expect a bank, started with foreign capital, accustomed to a rapid turn-over, to develop farming interests. I shall not draw up any plan in these matters which will fall to the lot of legislative study in Congress, the judge in this question. Let us make a joint effort to save the provincial Bank, not for the Government, but for the sake of the province; let us reorganize the Bank on a basis quite independent of the influences of Government. The depositors, debtors of the Bank, and the Government should be able to find the means for that purpose, counting on the spirit of fair play of the National Government. Within such lines, entailing a subscription in shares, the sale of public bonds, or the raising of capital on pledge of those bonds to pay depositors, and the gradual withdrawal of the issue of notes, the Province might help in the common task by imposing a special tax on rural wealth to guarantee the service on the capital raised for the above purpose.

I have, therefore, decided to form a special committee of the leading people of the country to study the situation of the Bank and propose a reorganisation of same within the limits I have sketched. Much may be expected from the collective wisdom of the committee, and many well-known people have already entered into verbal and written communication with me on this subject. The formation of the committee shall command my immediate attention.

It is not in my province to raise a standard in defiance of the proposed Banco Unico; in the interests of our autonomy, the joint-stock bank free from the federal control is preferable. We might point to the melancholy experience of the single bank system in other countries; in our own records, for the Provincial Bank rose from Rivadavia's Banco Unico Nacional. I beg to close this message asking you to await the results of the special committee: meantime, with your patriotic support and that of the people of the province, who see their vital interests at stake, I continue the long and unequal struggle I have been carrying on in silence, convinced that every sacrifice on our part is a source of satisfaction and honor.

OUR LONDON LETTER

GRAND NATIONAL AND UNIVERSITY BOAT RACE.

(From our own correspondent.)

There was an immense concourse of people on Aintree course yesterday when the Grand National was run. The honours for 1891 have fallen to the Irish division. Mr. W. G. Jameson's b.g. "Come Away" won by half a length; he was ridden by Mr. Beasley. Captain Owen on Lord Dudley's "Cloister" coming in second and the old winner "Ilex," heavily weighted, making a bad third. The betting and sporting predictions were all in favour of the Irish gelding. Twenty-one started, of which some half dozen reappeared near the post. The rest come to grief at one leap or another. Fortunately there were no serious accidents. Mr. Cunningham on "Why Not" got rather a bad fall, but he must be accustomed to it. That excellent amateur got a tumble last year on the same course. The weather in the forenoon was a little showery, but when the horses were saddled for the Grand National the sun came out gloriously, showing the colours distinctly right round. The reporters speak with enthusiasm of the race. Lord Sefton being again unwell and at Cannes there was not the usual party from Croxteth on the course with the Prince of Wales, who usually forms one of the party; but the Duke of Clarence and a large assembly of sporting swells were there. Lord Zetland and friends popped over from Dublin to see how "Chouffeur" behaved. By Jabers he fell nearly at the first fence. The winner "Come Away" is by Cambuslang out of Larkaway. He made his first appearance as a four-year-old in 1888. His principal performances have been at Meath Punchestown and other Irish meetings, until last November when he won easily the Valentine Hunt Steeplechase at Liverpool. The betting on the Grand National at the start was 4 to 1 on "Come Away," 5 to 1 "Ilex.," 7 to 1 "Cruiser," 9 to 1 "Grape Vine," 100 to 9 "Why Not," 100 to 9 "Roman Oak." The news of Come Away's victory was received with great rejoicing in Dublin and in Ireland generally. The son of Cambuslang carried a lot of Irish money. He did the distance, 4 miles 856 yards, in 9 min. 58 sec., the quickest time on the record of the Grand National for many years. He was very tired and walked away leg-weary if not lame. Mr. Jameson is staying in Cheshire for the hunting season. He backed his horse freely. Kavanagh, Daly, and many of our sporting friends amongst trainers and book-makers in Ireland are pounds richer by the race.

* * * *

When the Oxford and Cambridge crews were stripping for the race this morning it positively snowed. The day has been doubtful ever since, but this afternoon it seems making up its mind to be fine, so that the black mass of idiots who line the Thames from Putney bridge to Barnes on such occasions may peaceably regale themselves after their kind in river side "pub" gardens. "Oxford won" say laconically the early editions. Everyone supposed Oxford would win, the only question was "by how much?" Contrary to expectation the Cambridge men ran them very hard. Oxford won by about half a length, but had they not got the toss to begin with the dark blues would probably have been beaten. The river was very rough, and the choice of sides in the present case made a great difference.

A meeting of 5,000 Italians was held at the Cooper Union, New York, last night to protest against the massacre of their fellow-countrymen at New Orleans. Thousands were unable to obtain admittance, and became excited and clamorous, while a number of persons were injured in the crush at the doors. Order was maintained by one hundred and fifty policemen. The speeches set down in the programme were of a moderate and dignified tone, but at the close several men delivered wild harangues, crying for vengeance. The audience instantly became excited, and it required strenuous efforts on the part of the police to prevent riot and bloodshed. Finally, the disturbers were ejected by the police, and the meeting dispersed quietly. Resolutions were adopted urging the Italians in the United States to await with calmness the reparation requested from the Italian Government, and demanding the apprehension and punishment of the leaders of the lynching party. Similar resolutions were passed at meetings held at Philadelphia and New York.

The Aston Manor election is a tremendous victory for Mr. Chamberlain. Here are the figures, and nothing can and to detract from, their significance:—

	1886	1891
Liberal	2,713	2,332
Tory	3,495	5,310

MONTEVIDEO.

(From the Montevidean Times.)

The inauguration of the new filters and deposits at the Waterworks at Santa Lucia, on Sunday, attracted a distinguished gathering. Amongst the many present we may mention the Minister of Foment, Dr. Castellanos; of Foreign Affairs, Dr Herrero; of Government, General Perez; and of War, General Calforda, Mr. Henry Fynn (initiator of the works), Mr. W. Galwey, the local manager, and Mr. J. Kirkwood, Resident Engineer, Mr. H. G. Anderson and R. A. Thurburn, director and manager of the London and R. P. Bank. Mr. H. Chamberlain and Mr. R. Wingate, of the Central Railway, Mr. R. Moor of the Gas Co. Messrs. J. Hudson, J. Leared, T. Birch, A. Harley, R. Theobald, H. Elliot, G. Colladon, R. Allen, and many others, in all 137 persons. These left the Central station at 9.15 a.m. in a special train consisting of two handsome Pulman cars. Alighting at Canelones, the company proceeded to the water works in 25 large breaks. Here they visited the various tanks, filters, and machinery; being conducted round by Messrs. Galwey and Kirkwood. This done they sat down to a sumptuous 'dejeuner' served by the Hotel de Paris. The first speech was made by Mr H Fynn, who saluted Government, Municipal and other dignatories present. Dr. Carlos M. Peña, on behalf of the Municipality, spoke of the relations between the Company and the Board, Mr. Galwey replied in suitable terms, taking the opportunity to refer to a scheme for bringing water to Montevideo from Minas. Other speeches were made and toasts proposed by General Perez, Mr. Anderson, Dr. Castellanos, Dr. Herrero, Sr. Marquez and others. After a further inspection of the works, the party returned to town.

In the notice we gave of the works in our last issue we were incorrect in speaking of Mr. Henry Fynn as an English engineer. He is an Oriental, and not an engineer. The engineering part of the original works was carried out by Mr. Newman, whose name stands recorded on the commemorative marble fountain in the centre of Plaza Constitucion.

The English Church was fuller than usual last Sunday, to witness the annual administration of the rite of confirmation by the Bishop of the Falkland Islands. At the close of the service, instead of the sermon, the Bishop pronounced a charge to the candidates. The young lady candidates looked very charming in their white dresses and veils, giving a pleasant suggestion of some happy day, we hope not far off, when they will wear similar robes for another ceremony, whilst listening to "the sound of marriage bells."

Amongst the passengers leaving for "England, home and beauty" by the P. S. N. Co's Aconcagua to-day, is Mr. Ellis, long connected with the house of Bell, Towers and Co. After a residence of nearly 20 years in this country he goes home, with all his family, for a well-deserved holiday trip. His many friends will join us in wishing them a pleasant voyage, a happy holiday and a sound return.

THE WHEELER PORT SCHEME.

Mr. Editor,

In your paper of the 10th inst. I notice the following: "The Wheeler Port Scheme means 50 millions fresh capital in this country." You can safely add more than double this sum, and then be far inside of the amount. It will do more for the city of Buenos Ayres than the construction by Governor De Witt Clinton of the Erie canal did for the city of New York.

In its far reaching beneficial effects, from a national and commercial point of view, it will have no parallel.

It will introduce new elements of wealth, enterprise, energy, intelligence and industries.

It will prove a grand developing factor in the onward progress of the Republic.

If it increases the area of the city, as cities increase in size, so do the central lands increase in value. This is, and has been, the law since cities were built. As it is in London with its 5,000,000 of inhabitants, so it is in every other city, and so it will be in Buenos Ayres. This is inevitable.

Whatever public work economises the handling of productions, to that extent it enriches the producers and consumers. Consequently as you enrich the people you enrich the Nation.

G. H. Wheeler.

COPPER IN CATAMARCA.

566 Piedad, April 14.

Mr. Editor,

We, the Catamarca Gold, Silver and Copper Mining Co., take much pleasure in sending you samples of the ore which we have brought from the mines direct, and after you have examined the same we shall feel much obliged if you will kindly express your opinion in your valuable paper in reference to the ore, which we are now having assayed in the Mint, as it will greatly assist us in forming a stock company, if favourable, in Buenos Aires.

J. E. Irish,
President.

Ed. Note.—The ores on our table are very heavy, and apparently contain much copper. Catamarca has been famous for copper since the last century. Mr. Lafone Quevedo's mines of Andalgalá are working more than 30 years. Perhaps Mr. Irish would give us the yield of copper per ton of ore, the cost of fuel, transport, etc.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

A decree was issued yesterday suspending the greater part of the works on the Extensions and Branches of the Central Northern; the bridges over the Saladillo and Rio Perico on the Jujuy line, however, are to be completed, as also the sections unfinished of the Cerillos and Tuclame—los Colorados lines. The works on the lines from Cerillos to Rosario de Lerna and Quechipa and from los Colorados to Chilecito, as well as the termini at Salta and Jujuy are definitely abandoned. Other provisions on minor points follow.

Sr. R. Walter has joined the technical staff of the Railway Inspection Office, in the capacity of assistant engineer, instead of Sr. Carlos Reynolds, who has gone to the National Andine line.

Messrs. Lucas, Gonzalez and Co. have communicated with the Public Works' Department in reply to the report of Engineers Schneidewind and Senrot, who recently inspected the Salta-Jujuy line constructed by the firm. They say that the fact that on so important and difficult a line, and in an epoch of exceptional anxiety, the defects complained of are so few and so slight, is a satisfactory proof of the solidity and excellent construction of the line. After replying one by one to the clauses of the report, Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez and Co. conclude by saying that the defects shall be corrected, as a proof of their care for the maintenance of their reputation.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The gold premium and umbrellas again joined hands yesterday and went in the same direction—up: while rain and stocks came down. Governor Costa's tremendously long, save-the-Bank Message was the topic of the day; and the general verdict was that, although H.E. made the best of a bad case, there was really nothing to the point in the lengthy document. Politics in general are declared by those who know to be warming up gradually.

Pressure of matter compels us to hold over till to-morrow a number of interesting communications.

We have to return the best thanks of the Naposta men and boys to Mr. Gunning of the Anglo-Argentine Tramway for the mammoth sack of old clothes he sent them yesterday: the bearer staggered under the weight as he entered our office. Mr. A. G. Pruden also sent a liberal supply. But we must again state that much more men's clothing is still required, and we appeal to our subscribers with full wardrobes to supply it: remembering the old adage "Bis dat qui cito dat".

Letters by the Aconcagua from Chile say that Balmaceda will find it hard to hold out for six weeks more, as there will be a revolution in Santiago and Valparaiso the moment the forces of Congress get near those cities. Telegrams from Mendoza state that the Chilian troops now on the march across Argentine territory are dispersing and deserting in all directions. Another score for the patriots and nail in Balmaceda's coffin.

Advices from the Brazilian republic yesterday reported things as better in Rio; but whether this refers to yellow fever or the speculative fever we know not.

The National Finance Minister begins to-day in the Sud America the publication of a treatise on "Banking." It will be read with great interest at the present moment.

The Juez Letrado and Governor of the Rio Negro are again at loggerheads, and the latter appears to be in the wrong this time. The gallant Governor has appointed Commander Juan de Dios Rawson Judge for Minors. The Minister of Public Worship has begged of his colleague of the Interior to request the Governor to desist and annul the appointment.

Oh! The Something-or-other Committee of the Municipality have recommended to the Council the acceptance of Mr. Somebody's proposal to endow the city with an Eiffel Tower six hundred feet high. What a nice time it is for such foolery; but Nero fiddled while Rome burned.

There was a big blaze in a furniture shop in Calle Good Humour yesterday morning at the wild-freshness hour of 3 a.m. The residents in the adjoining houses took to their heels in «paños menores." Nobody was hurt. The furniture was insured in two offices.

The effects of the suppression of so many of the street-sweeping gangs are already painfully visible. "Matter out of place" is to be seen everywhere, except in the most central streets. This was to be expected, and must continue. Sun, Wind and Company, the great South American firm of scavengers, is again to the front, after many years moratorium; and they will probably serve us as well as they did in the good old times, when "serenos" sang us through the night, and Cedulas, shinplasters, Bateman and Madero legacies were unknown, and the Hole in the Mole was the only grievance the happy and contented citizens had to complain of. Times have changed and in the wrong direction.

The Mayor of Rosario has established Municipal bakeries to sell coarse bread to the poorer classes. The surplus bread will be sent to the hospitals. Some measure of this kind will probably have to be resorted to here when the winter sets in.

We are requested to inform the members of the Buenos Ayres Football Club that the opening match of the season will be played on the old ground, Flores, on Sunday next, 19th inst. Kick-off at 2 p. m. The game will be a kick-up between Captain and Secretary.

The unfortunate teachers in the State Schools are sufferers by the Bombshell decree. The Education Board have $90,000 in the National Bank, and had ordered the payment of the March salaries, when the bombshell burst; and now the unfortunate pedagogues have to live on hope, air and music for an indefinite period.

Coal has been found in Rioja, and Professor Kyle is now engaged in analyzing some samples, to see if they are genuine black diamonds or merely an imitation. By the way, has any of our numerous coal discoverers yet pocketed the $20,000 gold promised by Congress twenty years ago to the finder of real coal within the confines of this big republic?

The Catholic Club gives a grand concert in its fine saloons in Calle Piedad next Sunday, for charitable purposes. The most distinguished amateurs in Porteño society will take part in it.

The good and humane Zoos enrolled six new members at their weekly meeting on Monday last. They also shewed their sense by tossing into the w. p. b. a lot of petitions for recognition and rewards from sundry weak-minded parties who imagine they render inestimable service to the cause of humanity by curing a dog of a cough, or preventing a cat wetting its poor feet. It was about time to put a stop to this kind of thing, which was calculated to bring this really useful association into public ridicule.

The National Labour Office is doing good service in these bad times, and the unemployed are evidently beginning to find it a plank of salvation. Ten days ago it had 900 "pedidos" for hands on its books, and the figure is now reduced to 215. In the times of boom only the thoroughly dead-beats patronized the Office. Now it is different. The management of the Hotel and Labour Office has greatly improved of late.

The shopkeepers at La Plata have begun their gas-saving closing movement, and now cut the counter and its «disgustos" at 9 p.m. instead of an hour earlier, as they recently resolved to do.

They complain that business is bad, as all the principal residents buy their toggery and as much of their food as they can in this city. If so, why not shut up shop with the sun and burn less gas. There cannot be much shopping done in such a hard-up place at night.

We have to asknowledge receipt of English papers up to the 22nd ult. from the Red Star Agency of 572 Victoria.

We find the following matrimonial paragraph in the South American Journal of the 14th ult.:—"We hear that Mr. C. Jewell, of 42 Park Lane, W., and of Rosario, in the Argentine Republic, is about to be married to Miss Bessie Williamson, only daughter of Mr. John Williamson, of Claughton Grange, near Birkenhead, where the hymeneal ceremony, we are informed, will take place on the 19th inst."

Archbishop Anciros and party left Catamarca yesterday in a special train for this city. The crown placed on the statue of the Blessed Virgin of the Valley cost $5000 gold, and is studded with 500 brilliants.

The City Fathers want to spoil the Custom House receipts. They are thinking of asking the National Government to allow articles of food of "prime necessity" to be imported duty free. What a chance they have of it. It is precisely on those indispensable articles that our financial Solon, in his wisdom, has piled the heaviest taxes, and he won't take them off for all the Fathers, Mothers, or Grandmothers in or out of the City Council.

Thanks to the exertions of the Hon. Mrs. Pakenham, Mesdms Stirling, Grigg, Crowther, Goodwin, etc., the Ladies' Club is established, pro tem, at Mercer's in Calle Florida, where an excellent lunch and afternoon tea can be obtained at moderate charges.

We understand that 190 Dutch colonists from the Interior arrived in town yesterday and went to the Hotel. For some reason they found it impossible to get on or live. Every fresh attempt proves that official colonization is a mistake. These poor Dutchmen are now in the same plight as our Naposta countrymen.

The latest phase of the crisis is that 1800 infants and 1500 women in the Foundling H

The GASEOUS FLUID is the very best colic medicine I have ever seen given to horses, and the RED DRENCH for any illness after foaling or calving or lambing is, I consider splendid.

Wednesday, April 15.

In spite of the determined opposition that the liquidation of the Provincial Bank meets with in provincial circles, both Government and Opposition, the latter still governing the market is that the liquidation is inevitable, provided always that the National Government does not give way at the eleventh hour. This is the conviction that now predominates. The unanimous decision of the La Plata Deputies to save the bank at all hazards, in any way amounts practically to little or nothing, since moments of doing so is postponed, and the very weakness of the cause is amply demonstrated by the lack of even the pious schemes usually so prevalent when new departures are contemplated. That the bank can be saved is of course certain, but the probabilities against it are gaining ground every day. Such an institution could not disappear without creating a ripple of discontent, and it is not a ripple, but a vortex, that has been created. Salvation at any price is the cry. Do what you will, but save the bank, say the enthusiasts, and this the cry is echoed until even the reverberation seems to carry the conviction that with such unanimity of opinion nothing so material as resources are required. Outside the charmed circle, however, the matter assumes a different complexion, and it is evidenced that unless the Government gives a new emission, which, the financial Press forbid, the salvation cry is all sound and fury, mere empty words, signifying nothing. The Government has insisted and reiterated its intention of stopping all emissions, and on this the market rests content that the top price of gold has been already seen.

Business at the first hour was fairly brisk in gold, 42,270 ounces changing hands, opening at 55, rising to 55.50 and closing weak at 54.80, giving an equivalent of 327 %. Sovereigns were not in much request, and the quotation opened at 17.15 and closed at 17.30. Stocks in general were neglected. Catalinas were just able to hold their own, but National Bank shares, Cedulas and Constructors were palpably weaker. For the moment, all the business seems to be centred in the gold speculation.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day.

It is said that Dr. Lopez has wired to Dr. Plaza, in reply to his numerous telegrams from London inquiring particulars of the new bank about to be started, that the State banks will be amalgamated as the Banco de la Republica to the extent that the sound part of their capital will admit, and that the National Government will take over the gold bonds guaranteeing the emission, with the obligation of withdrawing the latter gradually. The majority of the board, which will hold its sittings in this city, will consist of Argentines, so as to give the institution a national character and prevent the foreign hides, 1420 kilos of tallow, 6000 kilos of bones, 71,952 kilos of wheat, 13,901 kilos of flax.

Three wagons cleared with 18,000 kilos of hard-wood sleepers.

Total weight, 118,943 kilos.

From Mr. Gmo. Printzenskold's shipping circular, dated Rosario, April 1st, we take the following list of exports from Rosario during month of March :—

Dry cowhides	49,992
Bales of wool	1,089
Bales of sheepskins	128
Bales of goatskins	193
Bales of hair	89
Kilos of wheat	36,199,800
Kilos of linseed	252,500
Copper bars	2,053
Kilos of bones	1,392,069
Kilos of quebracho-wood	604,347
Kilos of horns	5,000
Bales of hay	72,454

Mr. Printzenskold, in his circular, says :—

"Without any material change in the freight market since my last report, there is, however, a firm demand for vessels, especially small ones, to load hay for Brazilian ports, and for such vessels last month's rates are maintained.

"There is supposed to exist a considerable quantity of wheat in the colonies unsold, but exporters are not willing to pay the exorbitant prices asked by the farmers ; still, sooner or later, it has to be shipped, and the tonnage wanted.

"Besides, for hay and wheat, there is already some enquiry for tonnage for logwood and bones, so I look forward to continued activity in shipping."

There was a stand-from-under rise in gold at the second hour that staggered everyone, and such was the demand for ounces that they left off with buyers at 56, which gives an equivalent of 344⅝, shewing a rise of 12 points since yesterday. Everybody asked what was up, but there was no news in the wind or at least in circulation, and the rise may after all be a speculative spurt. In stocks there was little or no animation and prices were rather weak-kneed. Constructors closing at 8.10, National Bank at 47, and Flores Constructors at 164. Catalinas were quiet and rather improved at the close, leaving off at 12.90, but Cedulas were quite neglected and look like collapsing again.

Srs. AGAR, CROSS & CO., Calle Defensa 136.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no queria darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas instimaduras sanan facilmente, y se ha en cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.

Pueden Vds. darle la publi idad que gusten.
